Evaluating & Researching University Participation Interventions

NERUPI Toolkit Online Workshop: When to Evaluate

Programme

♦ 09:50 Virtual Coffee and Registration

♦ 10:00 When and What to Evaluate: Key Considerations

Annette Hayton, NERUPI Convenor
Annette will introduce some of the main purposes of evaluation and how they have evolved in the field of access and participation, explore how evaluation differs from research and put forward the key considerations for deciding when to evaluate your activity.

♦ 10:30 Practical Workshop: Should We Evaluate This?

Kate Holmes, NERUPI Development Officer
The workshop will take you through a series of short tasks to explore why, what and when to evaluate your activity as well as highlighting relevant online resources available in the NERUPI Reflexive Cycle Toolkit.

♦ 11:45 Conclusions, Next Steps, Ask NERUPI
Drawing together what we have covered today and any issues raised as well as thinking about the next steps for participants and for the Network.

Additionally, for those that want to stay there will be opportunity to share your thoughts and get advice about evaluating activity through informal discussion with the NERUPI team and Network.

♦ 12:30 Close
